Friday	11:00 AM	Oak	Opening Ritual	Join our blessing of our space and gathering. We will call to the quarters, to the ancestors and spirits of this place to bring protection, blessings and joy to our gathering.	Glenn Turner & friends	General Pagan
Friday	1:30 PM	Cedar/ Pine	Land, Sea & Sky - A Community Ritual	Join Druid Chief Kristoffer Hughes and members of the Anglesey Druid Order for a unique and dynamic ritual through the three realms of Land, Sea & Sky. Meet the Deities of the three realms, and with song, chant and voice we will sing in praise of inspiration, of Awen and community; in a ritual to affirm the bonds between the seen and unseen realms. Together we will honour the ancestors of our physical world and celebrate this global tribe of Pagans who gather in the spirit of joy, community and celebration. Bring your voices, your hearts and your joy.	Anglesey Druid Order	Celtic / Druid
Friday	1:30 PM	Oak	Magical Safety 101: Grounding and Cleansing	Magical events - like the one you're at right now - present unique safety challenges. Grounding and cleansing are two basic techniques that can solve a variety of common magical and energetic issues. In this class you'll learn several methods for grounding and cleansing and then practice them on yourself and other participants. You'll also learn how to recognize problems that can't be solved by grounding or cleansing. Think of this class as the magical version of a basic first aid training course! No prior warding or ritual experience required.	Hannah Storyteller and John Medellin

Friday	1:30 PM	San Jose	The Magic Of Food– Rituals, Offerings, & Eating Together	Add a pinch of lecture, a dash of workshop and two large scoops of ritual and you'll get a sense of what this offering is all about. Explore ancient pagan food rituals from around the world, designed to appease the gods and bring all manner of good fortune to your household. Tuck into scrumptious morsels of knowledge and wisdom from modern day kitchen witchery practices, including preparing ritual meals and creating the perfect sensual feast. We'll make ritual together. You'll leave with new magical tools. And yes, we'll even eat something!	Gwion Raven	General Pagan
Friday	1:30 PM	Santa Clara	Leadership Training - Teaching the Spiral Path	This class is comprised of three parts: 1: Learn to monitor a student's energy and offer the correct information & energy at the right time. Learn to teach in harmony with your students and Gaia herself. 2:This short lecture highlights why the ego drives us to behave the way we do & a few tools in how to magically transform this reality. 3:Growing up in a world where magical gifts are invalidated creates many kinds of distortions in one's perceptions. Learning to live with your magical talents is vital to being a successful, highly functioning magical being.	The Aquarian Tabernacle Church	Wicca
Friday	1:30 PM	Silicon Valley	Arming the Warriors of the Earth: An Activist's Ritual	In this deity-free rite of commitment and empowerment, participants will be charged with qualities they may call upon to be effective activists and advocates for the Earth and for justice.	Mark Green	Tradition not listed
Friday	3:30 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	The Horned God in the British Isles	For thousands of years, the Horned God has resided in the British Isles in various forms. To the ancient Celts, he was The Horned One, Cernunnos. In the Middle Ages he whispered to his followers in Christian Churches as the Green Man. As Herne, he became an English icon. Learn the real histories behind these powerful figures and how they all fit together. Find out how these three gods became an essential part of Contemporary Paganism, and why their messages still resonate today.	Jason Mankey	General Pagan

Friday	3:30 PM	Cedar/ Pine	Miriam's Well: Sustaining and Renewing our Magic	Miriam—an ancient Hebrew Goddess long before she became a Biblical figure—was said to have a well that followed her wherever she went. We too can find deep sources of strength and regeneration that can replenish our energy and deepen our magic even when we wander in the desert of our current social and environmental breakdowns. Right now, we are more than ever called to step into our full power and creativity, to maintain hope and compassion, to hold our vision and the commitment to make it real. This interactive workshop we will co-create ritual and drink from the well of renewal.	Starhawk	Goddess Spirituality
Friday	3:30 PM	Oak	Kitchen Witchery	Whether in village life throughout history, at a public festival, or in an intimate circle, communities of Pagans bond over feasting and food. In this fun and informative presentation, Katrina Rasbold, Witch, avid cook, and author of Goddess in the Kitchen, explores the magical properties of inherent in foods and the energy we inject into the meals we cook. Learn how surrounding moods, colors, and intentions affect the trusted and primal act of feeding other humans, whether for group gatherings, for family meals, or even for yourself.	Katrina Rasbold
Friday	3:30 PM	San Carlos	Neo Tribal ethics	Ancient tribes had a built -in, commonly understood assumption about what constituted ethical behavior to keep group and interpersonal harmony. This is a presentation about Neo tribal ethics in the Am Ha Aretz aka Amha tradition of tribal warriors shepherds and farmers, generic enough to be of use to other groups.Come with questions	EliSheva	Indigenous Non- European

Friday	3:30 PM	San Jose	Reiki 1 Explorer: Enhance Healing/Sensing ability	Reiki Explorer is the latest form of the popular healing art Reiki. Reiki originated in early 19th century Japan. It is used by millions worldwide for stress reduction and to promote the body's ability to heal itself. Reiki is extremely beneficial for Pagans and Energy Practitioners seeking to increase their abilities. Regardless of your natural level of psychic/spiritual/healing aptitude, Reiki will increase the amount of Ki you have access to use, and improve your sensitivity to energy. This class connects you to the Reiki and teaches you the basics. Come practice at our Hospitality Suite.	Jessica Reiki Miller	Tradition not listed
Friday	3:30 PM	San Juan	Growing Sacred Saffron	The majority of the world's saffron grows in some of the most poor and ethnically-violent areas of the Middle East. Being the most expensive spice in the world, it is also the most fraudulently traded. For magickal or culinary consumers who want genuine, ethical and organic saffron, this workshop will teach you how to grow your own! Material will cover a brief magickal/spiritual history of saffron, how to correctly identify Crocus sativa and saffron threads, and container and in-ground growing.	Raye Schwarz	Ecology/Sus tainability
Friday	3:30 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Designing and Running Safer Rituals	When creating and running rituals, ritualists have a responsibility to account for the emotional, mental, and magical safety of their participants. Rituals can be made "safer" when there are plans in place to account for issues that may arise, and ritual team members assigned the responsibility of tending and caring for priests, participants, the space, and the energies, gods and spirits involved. In this workshop, we will discuss practical individual and group warding techniques and ritual safety plans, and practice some of these techniques together.	River Devora	General Pagan

Friday	3:30 PM	Santa Clara	Language in Occult and Devotional Relations	Languages are the fabric of relationship, occult and devotional, divine and profane. This presentation explores the use of ancient, liturgical, modern, and constructed languages in occult and devotional practice. Whether as an act of religious devotion itself or as a vehicle for the establishment of holy space and ritual purity, the use of languages reflects a fundamental connectiveness to the divine.	James Hoscyns & Anomalous Thracian
Friday	3:30 PM	Silicon Valley	Accessing Norse Ancestral Archetypes	In the times of the Old Norse, connecting with ancestors was an integral part of community and spiritual practice. It was common to call upon specific individuals of a family-line, and the lore indicates that these ascended beings fall into four archetypal categories. We will explore the traits given to these ancestral archetypes, how they relate to centers of the brain, and their connections to subtle bodies of the soul complex. Learn to tap into their energies and wisdom, which can enhance every aspect of your being and improve your connections within your communities.	Kaedrich Olsen	Asatru / Heathen
Friday	5:15 PM	Carmel	The Furious Revels	In communities throughout Europe, stretching back as far as 2500 years or more, folks have gathered during the dark season, donned grotesque masks and bestial costumes, and wildly cavorted through their towns to drive out evil spirits and the doldrums of winter. Let's prepare the Doubletree for PantheaCon properly with a good, thorough and time-tested European cleansing tradition. Bring your furs, antlers, horns, masks, grotesque costumes, rattles, drums, bells, and brooms. Join the Furious Revels for a wild cavort, and let's spiritually cleanse the hotel the old fashioned way!	River Devora
Friday	7:00 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	Nathaniel Johnstone sings about cats and life.	Mythpunk Songwriter Nathaniel Johnstone performs a selection of his songs. You will hear deliberations on cats, life, hats, and other horrifying things.	Nathaniel Johnstone

Friday	7:00 PM	Cedar/ Pine	Becoming Whole, Becoming Powerful:	Techniques for Conscious Co-Creation: The path to becoming an actualized magic worker requires us to develop discernment, discipline and direction. Out of this grows magical muscle for the heavy lifting before us in these times of change. Orion teaches several techniques to support this aimed at (a) accessing and healing ancestral promise and paradox; (b) forging an envisioned future; (c) tapping the wisdom of our foundations and the expansiveness of the heavens; and (d) drawing upon the centering power of the earth. Our magical community is only as strong as its individual parts. Lets hear, revere, grow and know the center we occupy and heal our world and each other....NOW! (Adults only please.)	Orion Foxwood	Faerie / Feri
Friday	7:00 PM	Oak	Introduction to the Drum Circle	New to Drumming? Never touched a drum? Have a drum and don't know what to do with it? Maybe just looking for a different Drumming Experience? Friday	7:00 PM	San Juan/ San Carlos	Pagans of Color Caucus	As in previous years, the caucus is a space for self-identified people of color only. In this time together, we will meet for discussion, sharing, and mutual support. What strength can we draw from our diverse legacies? What can we ask of each other, in these difficult times? How can we best look after and advocate for each other? Pull up a chair--let's work it out.	Elena Rose	General Pagan

Friday	7:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Ritual for the Earth Mother	This year's Pantheacon theme--Sustainable, Caring Community--is something ADF Druids strive for. Sustainability is the only way that we as a community can survive, and community service is a requirement for all Groves in ADF. We have chosen the theme of this year's ritual to align with Pantheacon's, and that is a Ritual to the Earth Mother. The magical working will focus on calling upon the many gods of agriculture to show us how to care for our Mother Earth. We will have seed packets to distribute, so those who attend can take those seeds with them and plant something beautiful. Our ritual is open to all and it is a designated safe space.	ADF	Celtic / Druid
Friday	7:00 PM	Silicon Valley	Welcoming the Sabbath Bride	Jew-friendly Pagans, Pagan-friendly Jews, and those who find ways to be Heathen and non-Heathen at the same time, please join us as we welcome the Jewish Sabbath. There'll be a short prayer service (where the Hebrew God is acknowledged to encompass a feminine form!) followed by wine and bread and maybe something tasty to nosh upon.	A Couple of Jews	Tradition not listed
Friday	9:00 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	Pagan Humor 10! That's Like a Decade...	This will be volume 10. Yeah, that's what I said: "Jumpin' Jehoshaphat!" Do you remember anything about #1 or 2? Neither do I. Great! Let's do #2 again - I seem to recall that one being pretty good.	Angus McMahan	General Pagan
Friday	9:00 PM	Cedar/ Pine	Rene Collins and The Great Movement	If the saying "Music is the Soul given a voice" is true, then Rene Collins is that voice. Infusing African spirituality with reggae, jazz, folk, and a hint of Hip hop for taste, he blends together a sound, as contemporary as it is timeless. His music gives us more than something to fill the silence. He imparts to us words of wisdom and light in a perfect marriage of insight and love.	Rene Collins

Friday	9:00 PM	Oak	A Ritual of Commitment: Weaving a Spell of Resistance	Reclaiming witchcraft is rooted in the unification of spirit and politics. Magic between the worlds changes all the worlds and today we need magic of collective resistance. How can our magic help make a better world? How can our ancestors of blood, spirit and politics aid us? This is ritual of commitment and celebration. We call on our Mighty Dead, on our wild activist hearts, and on each other. Let us tear down the web of lies, and enliven our magic. We will make personal and collective pledges, and leave witnessed and recharged. We are not alone in this work.	Reclaiming Bay Area	Faerie / Feri
Friday	9:00 PM	San Jose/ Santa Clara	Reiki Explorer: Speed Reiki Techniques	Reiki/Energy healers: In the real world there is often not time for an hour-long session. What can you do to help someone in 3 minutes or less? Headaches, fears/phobia, worry, pain, stress, frustration. Further training/practice available at our Hospitality Suite. Prerequisite: Reiki training or similar healing ability.	Jessica Reiki Miller	Tradition not listed
Friday	9:00 PM	San Juan/ San Carlos	Devotional to Ariadne	Enter the Labyrinth to meet the divine Priestess of the mysteries, Ariadne. A mortal princess of divine blood, a descendant of gods, she of the starry crown. So much more than the wife of Dionysos. Adults 21+ only. Wine will be offered, there is no requirement to partake.	Lon Sarver and Thiasos Bakkheios	Hellenic / Roman
Friday	9:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	The Bawdy Divine	Dance like sex has been used through time as a means to raise energy and convey the ineffable. The two intersect in the art of Burlesque. This workshop is part play, part vulnerability and all about harnessing and integrating the power of erotic movement to shield, cleanse space, manifest desires and heal thine own sacred self. Join Irene McCalphin aka Magnolia Black for magic made in movement and mischief. Body Shaming will not be tolerated. Body Celebration Will Be Magnified. Accessible to all bodies and abilities. 18+	Irene McCalphin

Friday	9:00 PM	Silicon Valley	Building Community Seed Ritual	Building Community: Most of us have never sat and cleaned seed together. It is an intimate yet social time of laughter, chatter, and storytelling. NO experience needed, we will be work with beans, a wonderful teaching seed! The seeds we clean together will be donated to community gardens, seed banks, and food sovereignty projects. Building Ritual: Even though modern paganism is heavily rooted in agrarian traditions, we retain very little knowledge of their seed and plant magics. Consequently, most modern seed rituals are heavily appropriated from Indigenous peoples. So together let's create something entirely new!	Diana Heideman	Ecology/Sustainability
Friday	11:00 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	Striga: Magic, Spirituality, and Electronica	Singer/songwriter and electronic music composer Striga presents a unique and imaginative blend of electronica with new age and techno influences, adding a touch of fantasy, spirituality, and even a small dose of the spooky. Sometimes energetic and uplifting, at other times dark and somber, but always witchy.	Striga
Friday	11:00 PM	Cedar/ Pine	DANCE ELEMENTAL - Community in Motion	An ecstatic dance experience not to be missed! Move and flow with the rhythm in community, to witness, be witnessed, and to remind ourselves of the beauty that we are. The Elements are ever-present within us, building blocks to sustain our growth and stability. Embody Divine Nature through sacred ecstatic dance. Celebrate together, and allow your inner light to be revealed! All ages and genders welcome.	DevaGnosis	General Pagan
Friday	11:00 PM	Oak	Liber XV: The Gnostic Mass	Liber XV, also known as The Gnostic Mass, written by Aleister Crowley, is the central public ritual of Ordo Templi Orientis. Join us in this participatory sacramental ritual, and experience the mysteries of the Mass! Age limited to over-18, as there is some nudity.	418 Lodge OTO	Ceremonial

Friday	11:00 PM	San Juan/ San Carlos	Chat with Odin at the Hearth	Come on in and sit for a spell. Odin will be welcoming you to the hearth to engage in conversation. While it is possible we may try to tackle a clearer understanding of the world, more likely we'll be working on clarifying who Odin is to us individually, as well as the broader community. Anyone from any tradition or belief is welcome While this is a discussion circle, there will be an aspect of ritual experience as Odin will likely be attending through trance possession. Please, no children as knowing consent is needed.	Dave Shultz	Asatru / Heathen
Friday	11:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Mystery Discordian Mystery Ritual	The Deep and Eleftherian mysteries of Discordianism truly defy all possible description, so please stop reading this paragraph now. Delve into the mysteries of Eris, discovering not only the who, but also the where, and the using-what-implement! Also with optional variant endings! That is beginning to sound like a game of Clue, isn't it? And hey, weren't you supposed to stop reading? Open to all genders, ESPECIALLY MYSTERY GENDERS.	Discordian.c om	Discordian
Friday	11:00 PM	Silicon Valley	Witchcraft and the Queer Counterculture	This workshop will explore the following themes: 1. Witchcraft as a form of resistance to oppression and likewise the struggles and narrative of queerness as a form of resistance to white-supremacist cis-heteronormative patriarchy. 2. The flesh as the Hedge, the body of the queer witch as the threshold of ecstasy and transgression. Self as Other/Other as Self. 3. Queer sex magic and the ""Faggot Mysteries." The final part of the workshop will feature a ritual with participants invoking the Queer Witch Ancestors and asking for their aid in our work. Doors close at start.	Troll Huldren	Faerie / Feri

Saturday	9:00 AM	Carmel/ Monterey	ENFOLDING THE GREEN WORLD IN YOUR COMMUNITY	We can become so focused on the challenges and foibles of our human communities that we forget to include our habitat and the plants and animals who coexist with us in a larger definition of Community. How can we learn to cherish the living world around us, and build relationships with the natural environment and the creatures who share it? Can wild animals and the members of the plant kingdom be our partners, colleagues, teachers, healers, and friends? Learn and discuss the ways and means to this symbiotic world. Presenter: Amber K, Author and Executive Director of Ardantane.	Amber K	Ecology/Sustainability
Saturday	9:00 AM	Cedar	Basic Self-Defense at Home and on the Street	Avoiding violence is always the safest course, but sometimes, violence comes to you. Saturday	9:00 AM	San Martin	Company of Heaven: Group work in the Western Mystery Tradition	Initiation is the journey by which women and men may trace the hidden path between individuated personality and indwelling divinity, and as such is at root a solitary endeavor. Others can aid in this work, however, whether they be teachers lending what wisdom they may or fellow aspirants seeking the keys to their own inner truth and purpose. We will discuss initiation generally, the role other individuals can play in initiation, and the value of community as it pertains to magical practice and spiritual growth.	Zeph Bender	Ceremonial
Saturday	9:00 AM	San Simeon	Beginning Devotional Practice	Devotional practice engages our emotions, creativity, and desire for relationship and directs them towards the sacred. Beginning this special form of engagement can be confusing, even intimidating. What does a devotional practice actually look like? How do you get started? How do you know you're doing it right? These are just some of the topics that will be covered in this special presentation. Together we will demystify devotional practice and talk about the ways that people can bring focused emotional engagement to their spiritual lives.	Silence Maestas	General Pagan
Saturday	9:00 AM	Santa Clara	Introduction to Buddhist-Taoist Esotericism	Taoism is a nature-based religion, philosophy, and tradition of sorcery native to China formed around 600 BC. One hundred years later, Buddhism enters China and a modality of it, esoteric Buddhism, is blended in with Taoist magic. This introductory lecture will cover the ontology, theory, history, and cultural practice of sorcery at the intersection of esoteric Buddhism and Taoism. We'll discuss the syncretic nature of Taoist magic and how the contemporary practitioner of Western mystery traditions can integrate facets of Taoist magic into personal renderings of craft.	Benebell Wen	Tradition not listed

Saturday	9:00 AM	Silicon Valley	Gen-Y (X/Millennials) - Let me hear you!	This discussion is for the generation following Gen X, ~1980 through ~1997. This includes Xillennials & Millennials! I invite you to bring your thoughts, frustrations, and hopes to share with the cohort as we talk about how our paganism is different than previous generations, our plans for the future, and taking our seat at the table as leaders in our varying traditions/paths. We'll end with a general meet & greet as time permits! Other generations are welcome, but we ask that you respect the voices of the 20 to 30-somethings this discussion is geared for.	Grace Kilpatrick	General Pagan
Saturday	11:00 AM	Carmel/ Monterey	Building Alliances Across Our Many Communities	Our need for strong tribes is great, but so is our need for alliances with other tribes who share our concerns even if they do not share our beliefs and practices. This presentation will explore how we can form and maintain intrafaith alliances with other Pagan groups, interfaith alliances with other religions, and secular alliances with non-religious groups. It will also look at our relationships with our spiritual allies in this world and beyond. And it will look at how we can work with others for the common good even when we have disagreements with them.	John Beckett	Celtic / Druid
Saturday	11:00 AM	Cedar	The Magickal Mandrake	Mandrake is one of the most interesting and mysterious of the Witch's Plants. An herb of Venus and Saturn, as well as an aphrodisiac, sedative, and poison, does it deserve its sinister reputation? In this class, hear the folklore associated with the plant, along with my own experiences growing and working with it as a spiritual ally and teacher. Then experience the mandrake directly through the ritual use of mandrake flower essence and a guided visionary journey.	Christopher Penczak	Wicca

Saturday	11:00 AM	Oak	Healing Ancestral Wounds	Do you have patterns in your family line that have been passed down generation after generation of: abuse, addictions, depression, etc? Do you feel along with any “curses” there might be blessings in your lineage of: healers, entrepreneurs, artists or more? In this workshop we will learn how to “inspect” the four lines of: Mother’s/Mother, Mother’s/Father, Father’s/Father and Father’s/Mother. Using the system crafted by Daniel Foor 10+ years ago. Discover a “safe and effective” method to heal the tears in your lineage, and reconnect with your very own “Elevate Ancient Ones.”	Luna Pantera	Shamanic
Saturday	11:00 AM	Pine	When The Last Leaf Falls	A community is defined by the bonds that hold it together. But what happens when those bonds are torn at the seams? Grief and Bereavement can tear people’s lives apart, a true measure of community is how we react and rise to help. How can we offer true support in people’s darkest of hours? Coroner Kristoffer Hughes will guide you in his inimitable way to understand human bereavement and loss, and help you develop spiritually appropriate tools of listening, counselling, emotional and spiritual support, and to help people make sense of separation and the importance of emotional relocation.	Kristoffer Hughes	General Pagan
Saturday	11:00 AM	San Carlos	Touch and Consent in Witchcraft Traditions	Because of our focus on the holiness of the body, touch practices are an important part of many witchcraft traditions. How can we create an environment in our groups where consensual, engaged, pleasurable touch can occur? In this workshop, we will discuss some theologies of touch in Wicca, Anderson Faery, and other witchcraft traditions; learn the basics of consent culture; discuss ethical dilemmas around sharing touch; and practice asking for, receiving, and refusing touch. Doors will close when the presentation begins to create a safe container for discussion.	Christine Hoff Kraemer	Faerie / Feri

Saturday	11:00 AM	San Simeon	Mushrooms: Children of The Rain	Humans have been interacting with mushrooms around the globe since the stone age. There are used for food, medicine, and reaching higher states of consciousness. Research in last 20 years has brought to light just how magickal these fungi are. This presentation will illuminate the multi-faceted aspects of mushrooms, in regards to environmental remediation, permaculture, and medicinal value.	James Edmonds

Saturday	11:00 AM	Santa Clara	The Pagan Theurgy of Eros	Theurgy is the ritual process for communication with the Gods. An ancient Pagan tradition uses Eros to ascend to Divinity, proceeding through initiatory stages of Purification, Illumination, and Divine Union. It was described by Diotima, the Wise Woman in Plato's "Symposium," and developed by Marsilio Ficino, who made Pagan learning available in Europe. In this workshop I will describe the steps in the Neoplatonic Ascent by Love from my recent book, "The Wisdom of Hypatia." We will do visualizations and contemplative exercises so you learn the technique and can apply it alone or with another.	Bruce MacLennan	Hellenic / Roman
Saturday	11:00 AM	Silicon Valley	Men's Spirituality and Mysteries	Ivan Richmond has been involved with men's spirituality, men's Mysteries, and rites of passage into manhood for over 10 years. Used for centuries to unveil secrets of the personality, palmistry is informative and fun. This talk gives insightful guidelines for learning to read the hand. Kooch, author of The Art And Magic of Palmistry, will share essential techniques to help you build your skills and gain confidence in your practice. Using hands of willing participants, we’ll explore mystic symbols and major lines and interpret their potential meanings. More than a “how to” talk, this is a show and tell class that answers questions about your hand.	Kooch Daniels	Divination

Saturday	1:30 PM	San Juan/ San Carlos	Ogham: Wisdom of the Whispering Trees	Less well-known than the Runes, the Ogham is a language and divinatory system that has been attributed to the Celts. Veiled in more mystery and controversy than the Runes, the Ogham is a beautiful symbolic system that opens us to the special energies and messages from the trees. In this introductory session, the overall Ogham system will be presented, including history, mythology, and the meanings of the individual symbols. Open your ears to the beautiful language of the trees and learn how to attune to these energies for insight and healing.	Tiffany Lazic	Celtic / Druid
Saturday	1:30 PM	San Martin	Ereshkigal – Listening to the Underworld	Listen, listen. Set your ear to the Great Below, the hidden realms of the Underworld and listen. What do you hear? Your own heartbeat? Your questions, your inner knowing, your wisdom? The realms of birth and death, initiation – all these are held within the realms of the Underworld. Ereshkigal, Queen of the Underworld in Sumerian mythology is dark sister to the more famous Inanna and until Ereshkigal has been heard, Inanna cannot return to her life. Listening to Ereshkigal we hear what has been hidden. When we listen – when we hear – change begins. Doors will close after 10 minutes.	Jane Meredith
Saturday	1:30 PM	San Simeon	Wonder Tales for Pagan Kids	Storytelling time for kids of all ages! Experience tales being told from all over Pagandom, including traditional Celtic, Russian, African, and European folktales. Saturday	1:30 PM	Santa Clara	Clever, Compassionate, Cruel: Ancient Near Eastern Queens	History is littered with the names of kings, but what about their queens? Ancient myth sometimes has goddesses starting out as earthly queens who later gained immortality. Some queens became 'kings' and dressed the part! In one case, a queen 'king' may have groomed her daughter for kingship. Discover a world where queens could rule, butcher enemies and impart the wisdom of the divine feminine.	Jehon Grist, Ph.D.	Tradition not listed
Saturday	1:30 PM	Silicon Valley	Ifa Prayer, Song and Divination	Come experience the power of an ancient living magickal and spiritual tradition! Join us for Ifa Prayers and Songs to connect us with our ancestors, our higher selves and the Orisa. After the prayers and songs we will perform Ifa Divination with Opele to identify powerful magickal solutions to one or more audience members query as time allows.	Ile Ajebidan	African Diaspora
Saturday	3:30 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	Building and Sustaining Pagan Communities	How can we build healthier communities and ensure they are sustainable? How do we avoid burnout to have the strength to do the work of leading and serving? First we must face our shadows as groups and constructively look at power struggles, drama, groups falling apart, abusive leaders...and the places where our own personal shadows play out in groups. Then, we can look at strategies to build stronger groups and processes; understanding power dynamics, group structures, communication processes, boundaries, and more. Collaborative workshop open to all skill levels. 18+	Shauna Aura Knight	General Pagan
Saturday	3:30 PM	Cedar	An Introduction to Hedge Riding	The hedge is a symbol for what's in between, a logo for what is felt and unseen. To cross the hedge to the other side, a witch must open nice and wide. Enchant the mind and use the breath, cross the veil of life and death. Tread the mill and gently sway, what's black or white shall turn to gray. Topics include: solitary and group hedge-riding techniques such as "treading the mill", the Witch's tree, & spirit mediumship.	Devin Hunter	Tradition not listed

Saturday	3:30 PM	Oak	NROOGD 50th Anniversary Ritual	Fifty years ago, a bunch of friends got together to do a Witches Sabbat for a Create Arts class, and it worked! We recognized the magical power raised for the Goddess and were hooked. While we have few active covens at present, we still meet for some sabbats and moons. Come join us in our basic full moon ritual from our earliest days. Celebrate with us afterward with song and a party in our shared hospitality suite. (NROOGD = New Reformed Orthodox Order of the Golden Dawn)	Glenn Turner	Wicca
Saturday	3:30 PM	Pine	Rainbow Magic	Sacred work with Rainbow Colors, Spectrum Light, and Rainbow Symbols for personal and community healing, inspiration, and empowerment. This experiential workshop includes guided Rainbow Healing Lights meditation for personal stress release & well-being, Rainbow Flag working for LGBTQ equality, & Community Rainbow Circle for Planetary Healing. Saturday	3:30 PM	San Martin	Advancing Devotional Practice	Devotional practice begins at the altar, but where does it end? After the practice is started, what comes next? Advancing a devotional practice past the first few years takes a lot of dedication. This session will take a close, candid look at the trials and triumphs associated with long term devotional practice. We will also consider strategies that can help pagan and polytheist devotional practitioners address the unexpected obstacles that can arise on this path.	Silence Maestas	General Pagan
Saturday	3:30 PM	San Simeon	Seed Saving 101	One of the most important parts of food sovereignty is knowing how to save your own seed year after year, instead of having to buy new seed or starts every season. It also intimately connects us to our food system as we learn the life cycle of the food we eat. We'll cover the basics of seed saving from common foods while learning about food history, agricultural heritage, plant reproduction, pollinators, genetics, and more.	Diana Heideman	Ecology/Sus tainability

Saturday	3:30 PM	Santa Clara	The Many Flames	We will explore how Fire manifests as a spiritual force and in our rituals and devotional work. Fire can be the Fire of selfhood, of the Soul and Spirit. Fire is at the core of the force of life. Fire also expresses itself in a continuum of forms from Elementals to Divine Beings. Fire will also be examined through the framework provided by the modalities of cardinal, fixed, and mutable as well as in the pattern of the sub-elements. There will also be a summarization of some of the symbols and tools related to Fire.	Ivo Dominguez Jr
Saturday	3:30 PM	Silicon Valley	Magickal Drumming - Healing Drumming workshop	Drums have been used as healing tools since their inception. Saturday	7:00 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	Mahal in Concert	Mahal (Beloved/Noble/Sacred) plays songs to inspire activation, compassion, groundedness, peace, resilience, understanding. Come dance, listen, and participate!	Mahal {EthnoFusion Musik}	Indigenous Non-European
Saturday	7:00 PM	Cedar/ Pine	Sharon Knight and Winter Concert	Festival Favorites Sharon Knight and Winter are internationally touring musicians in the mythic-Celtic vein. Their penchant for combining fierce and gutsy bravado with ethereal beauty, a hearty dose of fantastical lyrics, and an obvious love of storytelling has inspired their own style, "Neofolk Romantique". This often sounds less Celtic and more "Folktales that ran away with the Faeries at the turn of the century and took cover in an old trunk bound for the circus, which was then commandeered by pirates." This suits them fine.	Sharon Knight
Saturday	7:00 PM	Oak	Descent & Exaltation of Inanna, a Mystery Play	An interactive, movement-oriented portrayal of the Descent of Inanna from Her decision to enter the Underworld, to Her resurrection, told through belly dance, music and song. Non-officiants will be asked to participate through call-and-response, singing and other speaking, as well as some movement.	House of Inanna	Tradition not listed

Saturday	7:00 PM	San Jose/ Santa Clara	Ask A Native	Ask Indigenous Voices of the Community questions of cultural sensitivity, allie-ship, decolonization & more. An open forum opportunity to get answers to questions that YOU want to hear about!	Indigenous Voices/ Native Perspectives	Indigenous Non-European
Saturday	7:00 PM	San Juan/ San Carlos	Kids' Ritual and Circle	Calling all children – it's circle time! Time to dance and sing! Time to have a blast doing ritual that's all about you kids! After running South Bay Pagan Kids for a few years, Taffy Dugan has crafted a fun and captivating ritual that you and your family will thoroughly enjoy. While it's run in an eclectic Wiccan way, there are elements that many Pagan families can take away and use in their home rituals, despite their different traditions.	Taffy Dugan	Wicca
Saturday	7:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Nerthus: Mother of the Vanir, Mother of Earth	Join us for a devotional ritual introducing Nerthus, the Vanic Goddess of Land and fresh water, first wife of Njordh, mother of Freyr and Freyja. We will explore Her story, invite Her presence, and seek Her wisdom. As the story of Nerthus can be intense, we will be closing the doors after the ritual begins.	The Vanic Conspiracy	Asatru / Heathen
Saturday	7:00 PM	Silicon Valley	Havdalah	Jew-friendly Pagans, Pagan-friendly Jews, and those who find ways to be Heathen and non-Heathen at the same time, please join us for the Havdalah service that marks the end of Shabbat and the beginning of the new week. There'll be a short prayer service followed by wine and bread and maybe something tasty to nosh upon.	A Couple of Jews	Tradition not listed
Saturday	9:00 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	Lon Milo DuQuette's You Bet Your Ass I'm a Peacenik Concert	Lon Milo DuQuette raises his ageing hippie voice in original songs of peace, love, and opposition to hate and bigotry.	Lon Milo DuQuette

Saturday	9:00 PM	Cedar/ Pine	The Blood Stained Sickle	The blood of the ancient Druids still sings from the shorelines of Britain - it tells of sacrifice and a people of justice, strength and resilience, a caste of Priests who stood up against adversity, subjugation and certain death. But what can we learn from them? Today, Druidry is a tradition that has justice and wisdom at its heart, its strength lies in its past, its trailblazing present and its bright future. Join Druid Chief Kristoffer Hughes on an exhilarating journey to glean the wisdom of the Druids, and to propel today's Pagans into tomorrow using lessons from the past.	Kristoffer Hughes	Celtic / Druid
Saturday	9:00 PM	Oak	The Kingslayer Calls	The Bawdy Divine Presents a ritual cabaret for the sovereign souls, the wicked ones, the waking sleepers and the truth seekers. Come see yourself in the reflection of the Divine. 18+ for language and nudity	Bawdy Divine Presents
Saturday	9:00 PM	San Jose/ Santa Clara	Hekate: Witness and Ally	Hekate: Dark Moon Ritual and Shadow work. We will acknowledge our shadows and those of our communities, the dark that hinders the health of ourselves and our communities. We will invoke Hekate and work with her as witness and ally. We will move out of the bonds of silence, fear and hatred into openness and courageous compassion. In joy and strength, we will return to the power and deep connection of Hekate's cave. The door will close once the ritual has started, about 15 minutes after the program's stated time.	Timotha Doane and Kristen Oliver	Goddess Spirituality

Saturday	9:00 PM	San Juan/ San Carlos	The Rites of Annwn: Seeking the Nine Maidens	Deep in the Welsh Otherworld, the Cauldron of Annwn is warmed by the breath of Nine Maidens. Distilling the brew that offers Wisdom, Transformation and Inspiration, it is one of the Thirteen Treasures of Britain and the Celtic British precursor to the Holy Grail. Are you called to the Quest? Do you feel the Maidens' breath? If so, come journey with priestesses of the Avalonian Tradition into the personal Otherworld and the presence of the Nine Maidens to seek the Inner Cauldron and drink deeply from the wellspring of inspiration -- the source of the Awen within you. Everyone is welcome!	Sisterhood of Avalon	Celtic / Druid
Saturday	9:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	I AM WE, the "We're All In This Together" Ritual	In building a caring and sustainable community, it is important to come together and recognize that in diversity there is power. The key to succeeding in this endeavor is to open ourselves to new ideas, new directions, and new visions shared in a positive, supportive atmosphere. The Rainbow Warriors invite you to join them in building community through ritual connection, establishing a way to turn every "I" into "We". The only experience necessary is yours. This ritual is open to all PantheaCon attendees. Please, come and join us. Presentation will be closed once ritual begins.	The Rainbow Warriors	General Pagan
Saturday	9:00 PM	Silicon Valley	The Mary Magdalene Rosary	Are you an empath that find themselves weighted down by the energies of the past few months? Is regular meditation just not enough anymore? Luna Pantera would like to offer her, "Rosary of the Magdalene" which was channeled to her. It can help you work through all the feelings that might be coming up for you and help you to find your "inner peace." There will be a trance to meet The Magdalene to find out how She can assist you on your path.	Luna Pantera	Shamanic

Saturday	11:00 PM	Fir	Spark Collective Heart Circle	Join the Spark Collective for a fun, participatory, ecstatic, improvisational, magickal circle. Our ritual is a ceremony of spontaneity, mindfulness and presence. We celebrate everyone whose will is to participate. We join our voices, speak with our feet and our hands, let our passion move our bodies, and raise our spirits. Bring your joy, love, engagement, and energy. Bring your whole self. Let your practice be your play and your play be your practice. We will co-create an inspiring and empowering ritual to engage our gifts, explore our connections, and build our beautiful community.	Spark Collective
Saturday	11:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Oracular Seidh	Once again, the Seidhjallr team will be here to answer your questions and seek counsel with the ancestors and the gods. Based on Viking-Age tradition, but open to all, in this rite we support each other with our energy and learn what wyrd has woven. For more information about Seidh, see www.seidh.org , or THE WAY OF THE ORACLE by Diana L. Paxson.	Seidhjaller	Asatru / Heathen
Saturday	11:00 PM	Silicon Valley	Bardic Circle!	Love to lift your voice in song about that good Old Time Religion? Want to learn more songs or sacred chants? Don't want to sing, but want to recite poetry, or dance, or listen? Come share your performing art, or enjoy the performing gifts of your fellow Pagans. Format will be Pick, Pass, or Play: pick a song (or singer); pass (that is, skip your turn); or play—that is, perform! Come share the fun.	Valerie Voigt
Sunday	9:00 AM	Cedar	Crossroads and Graveyards Magic	Some of the most powerful Hoodoo magic involves ancestors and/or spirit, and Crossroads magic is perhaps one of the most recognized types of Hoodoo magic. There are specific methods involved in these kinds of workings. This class will present various processes and rituals for this kind of work, as well as why this magic is so important and powerful.	Hexeba Theaux

Sunday	9:00 AM	Oak	Basics of Energy Healing	This workshop assumes no previous knowledge and its focus will be on your own personal experience. Topics will include: what is energy healing? seeing healing energy, moving healing energy within your own body, feeling it in others' bodies, 'yin' and 'yang' energy, auric cleansing, chakra stimulation, relieving energy coagulations that lead to physical symptoms such as pain and stiffness, and self-cleansing. This workshop integrates the basics of what I learned from six years' study with a Brazilian shaman as well as over thirty years of healing work.	Gus diZerega	General Pagan
Sunday	9:00 AM	Pine	Introduction to Runes - The Elder Futhark	An introduction to the ancient heathen runic writing and divination system known as the Elder Futhark. Comprehensive study and practice handout provided.	Drew Ward	Asatru / Heathen
Sunday	9:00 AM	San Jose	Practical Ancient Greek Divination	Divination was central to ancient Greek Paganism. From the Delphic Oracle to dream incubation to dice casting, divination was an essential means of communication between Gods and mortals. In this workshop, I will teach several authentic ancient divination systems, including the Greek alphabet oracle, which is similar to rune casting, and the Oracle of the Seven Sages, both of which are presented in my recent book, "The Oracles of Apollo." We will also work with an ancient knucklebone oracle, which is similar to the I Ching.	John Opsopaus	Hellenic / Roman
Sunday	9:00 AM	San Juan/ San Carlos	DIY - For Children	There will be 4 separate stations at which there will be taught to make 4 different DIY projects geared for children from ages 4-40! Sunday	11:00 AM	Carmel/ Monterey	Excavating, Exploring & Rejuvenating the Royal Road	Troubled times require fearless and furious divination, and we have never needed deeper and truer wisdom and guidance in our individual and collective lives than we do right now. In a briskly paced meander, Thalassa will examine how we can scrape the barnacles off the Tarot, salvage what actually works, and delve into newer developments that enable us to use "the Royal Road" in a more effective manner. All levels of interest and enthusiasm are welcome.	Thalassa	Divination
Sunday	11:00 AM	Cedar	Avalon: Guardians of the Holy Grail	Who serves the Grail? What ails thee and how may I be of aid? These are the questions of the Holy Grail, that not only must be asked, but lived. Rooted in the ancient Pagan cauldron traditions of the Goddess, yet weaving its way into many cultures and traditions, we seek answers to these questions through a quest. Join us on this visionary quest to seek the Grail and restore the enchantment of the sacred agreement between the Land, the People, and the Gods. No admittance once we begin the visionary portion of our workshop.	Christopher Penczak	General Pagan
Sunday	11:00 AM	Oak	Resistcraft: When a Witch's Place is in the Resistance	What can a witch do when Nazis march proudly in the streets? When laws are made attacking immigrants, people of color, and LGBTQ people? When religious minorities face daily violence and vandalism? When cities are left to burn or drown due to unchecked climate change? What are a witch's capabilities and responsibilities in a time of injustice, from the courts to the streets to our own homes, from protecting vulnerable communities to public advocacy to anti-fascist hex campaigns? Join an experienced, dedicated panel of activist magic-workers for a discussion of what we can--and must--bravely do together.	Elena Rose, Crystal Blanton, and Panel	General Pagan

Sunday	11:00 AM	Pine	Betwixt & Between: Exploring the Faery Tradition of Witchcraft	The Faery tradition of witchcraft is a wildly diverse path of magic. Stemming from the teachings of the late Victor & Cora Anderson, Faery draws inspiration and power from many sources and offers those who would practice its hidden ways an opportunity to embrace the shining realm of Enchantment. Using material from Storm's new book, "Betwixt & Between", we will discuss some of the basics of this often-misunderstood path and perform a rite to invoke the Old Powers for personal blessing, development, and a deepening of our own witch power.	Storm Faerywolf	Faerie / Feri
Sunday	11:00 AM	San Jose	A Jungian Approach to Tarot	Psychologist Carl Jung wrote about Tarot on several occasions, seeing it as depicting archetypes of transformation like those found in myths, dreams and alchemy. Jung even developed a group to integrate insights about a person using several different divination systems. In this presentation we'll explore how the Waite-Smith Tarot parallels Jung's model of the psyche, and the essential archetypes like those in Campbell's Hero's Journey. You'll learn how to use these concepts to expand and deepen your own Tarot practice. Familiarity with Tarot is helpful but not essential.	Mary Greer	Divination
Sunday	11:00 AM	San Juan/ San Carlos	Clothing Swap	The Pagan Alliance's annual Clothing Swap Returns! Bring your clean ritual, fancy evening and interesting day wear and accessories to trade with other Pagan folks. All ages, sizes & gender identities welcome. Left over clothes will be donated to charity.	Pagan Alliance

Sunday	11:00 AM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Sacred Fire: Seeking Our Strength	A fire burns within our hearts... yet the fire that sustains us must be fed or we weaken. To have the strength to serve and sustain...to stand up for justice...we must feed the fire of our inspiration, the fire that heals us. We must burn away the spells cast over us by the words of others and face our shadows to use the sacred transforming magic of fire. Together we seek the power within our sacred depths and the magic of life force, love, and hope through ecstatic ritual, chanting, and trancework. Doors close after 10 min.	Shauna Aura Knight	General Pagan
Sunday	11:00 AM	Santa Clara	Theurgy	Theurgy can be thought of as ancient ceremonial magick which culminates in an encounter with the divine. This presentation will outline what is known about theurgy, but will focus on ascension, where the soul temporarily returns to its heavenly home where it can acquire wisdom, immortality and experience an encounter with deity. The process involves ascending past the planetary spheres and various forces by using hymns, names of power, breathing techniques and making various sounds.	Tony Mierzwicki	Hellenic / Roman
Sunday	11:00 AM	Silicon Valley	Anansi's Tales & Wisdom time 3	Come gather around for Anansi's Stories, again. The oral traditions of telling Tales in Africa is a timeless honored practice. Tales are for all ages, not just for the kids. For the tales are also a way of teaching Wisdom. Simple or complex, we all can learn from a tale. The gathering and telling of tales, build not just the family bonds, but also the community bonds. Anansi's tale are open and welcome all, and all ages. So come share, learn, and enjoy a tale. Some old and others new.	Unkle Blacktalon Destiny	African Diaspora

Sunday	1:30 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	Acquisitions Editors Take Two!	Back by popular demand, acquisitions editors from Llewellyn and Weiser team up to reveal an eye-opening look at Pagan and esoteric publishing! Join Elysia Gallo and Judika Illes as they explain how decisions are made, what their meetings are like, how book covers come to life, what publishers expect of authors in marketing themselves, and more. Q&A follows, and afterwards they will both be taking pitches in their respective suites upstairs. Last year's presentation was called "fantastic" with "great info" and also "freakin' hilarious." If you missed it last time, be sure to join us this year!	Elysia Gallo and Judika Illes
Sunday	1:30 PM	Cedar/ Pine	Returning the Roots to the Tree	Faery Practices for Unearthing Restorative Wisdom: The tree of humanity and its top-heavy reach is causing the web of earth-life to tremble. I think its clear, either we strengthen our roots or we will topple in our own winds of change. Faery Seership practises are very focused on unearthing our sacred relationship with the earth and her integrative life. Our ancestors revered this and so must we. We must reach deep, open ourselves to the ancestral uprising tide of ancestry (human and other) and, remember...and re-mem-ber. Lets open the well of knowing, call to the ancestors of all earth life and loosen the wisdom waters of the under-country to feed and free humanity from its illusion of isolation... and restore each other and Eden. (Adults only please.)	Orion Foxwood	Faerie / Feri
Sunday	1:30 PM	Oak	Bored by Qabalah? QABALAH INITIATION RITUAL for YOU!	Lon Milo DuQuette's alter ego, Rabbi Lamed Ben Clifford, is back from the dead with a new book and Qabalah Initiation Ritual created especially those who think Qabalah is boring.	Lon Milo DuQuette	Ceremonial

Sunday	1:30 PM	San Jose/ Santa Clara	The Nine Keys of Community	Using the Island of Avalon as an allegory for a spiritually centered and healthily functioning community, we will utilize the Celtic Ninefold energetic to guide us in how to create thriving and enduring groups of all kinds and sizes that are founded on principals of mutual respect, self-sufficiency, collective interdependency, and interpersonal balance. We will also reflect this Ninefold model within the self, applying its principles to help us function cooperatively from a place of greater wholeness and clarity.	Jhenah Telyndru	Celtic / Druid
Sunday	1:30 PM	San Juan/ San Carlos	Braiding for Sacred Use	Braids have been used to draw community together since about the time humans started twisting fibers together; to make slings for hunting and decor, for clothing and lacing armor, as the cords to take sacred measure. Come learn how to simply make a complex braid!	Ruth Temple	General Pagan
Sunday	1:30 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Guardians of the Crossroads	Prepare to invoke the Guardians of the Crossroads, those who dwell in the liminal times and places. Seen in many cultures as the torchbearers, wisdom keepers, the keeper of the ways, they can aid you in gaining insight into your path, into the center of the crossroads, to aid in life decisions. She who holds the keys to Wisdom will be called upon for clarity in order to bring about greater change in the World by creating greater change within. Let those changes ripple out into the world as you walk the Path that was meant for you.	Alix Wright	Wicca
Sunday	1:30 PM	Silicon Valley	Seeing for the tribes	This is a ritual, a reconstruction of public lot casting, Pagan Israel's ancient public divination ritual. Come with questions. Doors will be closed 10 minutes after ritual start times pls be on time...	EliSheva	Indigenous Non-European

Sunday	3:30 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	Courting The Shadows Of The Gods	Even as we have a shadow self, so too do the gods. Greek mythology describes in detail how the shadow selves of its deities have a hand in helping the aspirant tap into their own divine power. Learn more in a class designed to help you safely and transformatively connect to the shadow self of a deity.	Thenea Pantera	Hellenic / Roman

Join us as we bring the cards to life through spoken work, song, dance, and on-the-spot readings by players representing the 22 Major Arcana. Feel free to come dressed as your favorite card and boogie down as we'll close the show once again with an interactive dance party with the audience. GET READY TO GET READ.	Aurea Arcana
Sunday	3:30 PM	San Jose/ Santa Clara	Divination, Prophecy, Oracular Vision	Many traditions make use of rituals and the methods of the sacred sciences to gain guidance, to extrapolate the future, and to understand the deeper forces at work in creating what will be. Of course, differences of belief and culture will express as differences in how divination, prophecy, and oracular vision are used and viewed, but there are connecting threads that relate to the nature of these practices. Divination, prophecy, and oracular vision have qualitative and quantitative similarities and differences. This class will explore the spectrum of what we call divination, prophecy, and ora	Ivo Dominguez Jr

Sunday	3:30 PM	San Juan/ San Carlos	Supermarket Witch Crafts: Creating Magical Objects	Books of shadows, witch bottles, talismans and amulets need not be expensive or difficult to make, they can all be made from everyday items, many of which can be gathered from a local market or "supercenter" store. Sunday	3:30 PM	Silicon Valley	FFRASS Permaculture Garden Meet-up and Seed Swap	Come check in with old friends and new on the state of our gardens, learn about permaculture, biodiverse plantings, and join in a seed swap (or just come get a bunch of seeds, we always have extras!) Info, resources, and sources abound for growing with sacred intent.	FFRASS / Ruth Temple	Ecology/Sus tainability
Sunday	7:00 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	The Sounds of Transformation in Times of Upheaval	Music. Rhythm. Breath. A sonic journey from the deeply meditative to the ecstatic. Music can unify, activate and replenish the soul. Come share in "practices of collective joy!" You will be guided in a meditation, singing, and basic rhythms. Levitation may occur.	Alphonsus	Shamanic

Sunday	7:00 PM	Cedar/ Pine	Hero and Hearth: A Rite of Renewal of Courage	It is at the hearth where the wounds and weights of battle are healed, and warriors are renewed for their struggles. It is the hearth that holds the spiritual and moral heart of community, where ancestors gather to remind us what we fight for. Coru Priesthood and Roots & Branches invite you to join us in ritual at the sacred hearth, held by the Matronae of hearthfire: to be received, restored, and recharged by their holy power, and to move forward renewed in the strength of the Morrigan to rejoin the battles we face.	Coru Cathubodua Priesthood with Strong Roots and Wide Branches	Celtic / Druid
Sunday	7:00 PM	Oak	Stirring The Cauldron: A Ritual Exploration of Movement	Movement is a key element to connecting the mind, body, and spirit. The more we can shift from static to active practice, the more embodied our magick and other metaphysical experiences become. In this ritual-meets-workshop, we'll focus on how to incorporate dance elements into your practice regardless of age, ability, experience, or tradition, using the metaphorical cauldron as our guide.	Tempest
Sunday	7:00 PM	San Jose/ Santa Clara	Chants for Change	How do we bring political awareness to our magic, and magic to our politics? Starhawk and musician and singer Evelie Posch will guide an interactive session creating chants, liturgy and music to energize our rituals and social change work. Sunday	7:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Dionysian Ritual Calling in the Wild	In this ritual we call to Dionysus and His wild nature. We call to Him to help us unlock the pieces of ourselves that have been closed down, cultured, locked away, tamed and hidden. We will revel in ecstatic energetic abandon, we will sing, we will dance, and perhaps imbibe some of his sacred drink. We offer this ritual to honor Him and call the wild out of the cells of our beings. Io Evohe Dionysus!	The Wild Maenads	General Pagan
Sunday	7:00 PM	Silicon Valley	Youth Ritual: The Musical!	Come join the Peacock Posse as we sing, dance, call the elements and invite in the god and goddess, in a family friendly, all ages ritual. We will invoke the creative, embrace the imaginative, and share the energy of our movement with each other and with the world. Be ready to laugh, sing, shake your booty, and just have fun!	Peacock Posse	General Pagan
Sunday	9:00 PM	Carmel/ Monterey	1 in 8, songs & stories inspired by cancer treatment & recovery	Breast cancer happens to 1 in 8 women annually. In 2015, I became one of them. This is my story in song -- my fear, shame & anger, my gratitude, hope and compassion, even humor played its part in my healing. 1 in 8 expresses the message that creative response to your diagnosis is a way through the fears, challenges, ravages, anxieties of cancer treatment. Jazz guitarist Mimi Fox, a sister-survivor, joins me in collaborating on these songs, driving them into arrangements that bring true expression to each song's meaning.	Deborah J. Hamouris
Sunday	9:00 PM	Cedar/ Pine	Celtic Rock Concert with Avalon Rising	Join Celtic Fusion band Avalon Rising for a mystical, magical, danceable night of Celtic/Medieval rock. With Pantheon favorites Kristoph Klover (vocals, guitar, octave mandolin), Margaret Davis (vocals, harp, flute), Mark Ungar (bass, mandocello, vocals), Scott Irwin (drums, vocals), and Robert Hill (mandolin, electric fiddle, vocals).	Avalon Rising	General Pagan

Sunday	9:00 PM	Oak	Zeus and Harmonia: The Power and The People	Zeus is the god of tradition and establishment. Harmonia is the goddess of harmony: balance, equity, and justice. Join us for a trance devotional and magical working to open the ears and hearts of the establishment, lift up the voices of the common people, and heal the world of the divide between Harmonia and Zeus.	Pandemos	Hellenic / Roman

Sunday	9:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Bright Hearth~Deep Well~Great Heart Ritual	These are difficult times. How do we act skillfully in the world, in outward power and inner calm? The Deep Well-Great Heart Society is in the business of increasing the flow of compassion in the worlds, through the creation of Wells which we fill with water and prayers. Anyone in need can draw from this pool of lovingkindness. There is another piece to the puzzle of how we remain effective: consider the Bright Hearth. Fire gives the light and heat of courage and motivation to our actions. Join us for a ritual of empowerment and blessing for self and community.	The Deep Well ~ Great Heart Society	General Pagan
Sunday	9:00 PM	Silicon Valley	Joy Through Meditation: Backyard Wars Edition	Going into the backyard of our mind we are going to learn to play and experience joy in this guided meditation. Expanding on what we already know about meditation. Everyone welcome. So bring out your inner child, kick off you shoes, and feel the grass under your feet as toys battle it out for supremacy.	Jonathan Sturgeon
Sunday	11:00 PM	San Jose/ Santa Clara	Galdrablót - A Norse Ritual of Spiritual Transcendence	Hidden within the lore of the Old Norse are the secrets to spiritual ascension. By pulling together these scattered fragments into a single practice, we can build upon the spiritual foundation that the ancients left us, and bring it into a working, appropriate for the modern mind and age. In this workshop, you will gain a deeper understanding of the mystical practices of the Old Norse in a modern, musical context, and build upon your own spiritual ascension work using resonant patterns (sound) of consciousness and the runes.	Kaedrich Olsen	Asatru / Heathen

Sunday	11:00 PM	San Martin/ San Simeon	Inanna and Dumuzi Procession and Devotional	Temple of Inanna and Dumuzi will lead people in the devotion of Inanna and Dumuzi, two of the oldest Deities of civilization, love, war, agriculture, herding, and sexuality. In ancient Sumer, non-binary gendered people were among the clergy who served Them. In accordance with an ancient Sumerian hymn, we will distribute colored scarves to all who identify as non-binary gender (queer, third gender, flexible, etc.) and we will all process through the hotel, praising this Goddess and God and asking for Their blessings on our civilization.	Temple of Inanna and Dumuzi	Tradition not listed
Monday	9:00 AM	Carmel	Fear as a Source of Magic	Fear is powerful. Overwhelming, compelling, even translating into it's own identity. "Fear as a source of magic" will be looking at how we "do" fear, what is it, where does it come from? Magic is often said to be empowered by drawing up strong emotions and focusing them into the working - in this workshop we will explore a different way of working with fear. Fear can be enlightening, give us vital information, as well as direction. During this workshop we'll experience fear from a new perspective, allowing for growth and understanding of self.	Tommie StarChild	Faerie / Feri
Monday	9:00 AM	Cedar	Political Magick	More people are being called to do magick to affect the state of our culture, communities, and systems of governance. For operative magick to be effective when applied at this scale and to these categories, modifications must be made to both the planning and to the execution of the magick. The methods for analysis and implementation will be a mixture of mundane practices in combination with Low, Middle, and High magick. I will also talk about the ethics and consequences of political magick.	Ivo Dominguez Jr

Monday	9:00 AM	Fir	Magic with Tarot Cards	Did you know that The Lovers card can be used to help you let go of an unhealthy partnership? A Hermit card stuck in your shoe can help you pass an exam? The “disastrous” Tower card can actually be called upon to give you a limousine ride to your best destiny? While many people are aware that the Rider-Waite-Smith tarot is an amazing system for accessing deep spiritual wisdom, what most haven’t realized is that it’s also a powerful and practical tool for manifesting all that we dream and desire. Go beyond the valley of the fortune teller and use your tarot deck to manifest your best life.	Madame Pamita	Divination
Monday	9:00 AM	San Jose	Initiation... Wbo, What, Why, When and How	A doorway to power. A powder keg of pain. Stepping into our potential. Destroying our lives. Connecting with the Gods. Losing our hold on reality. Initiation can be all of the above. It has been shrouded in mystery. We can't share ALL the mysteries here, but a lot of things about initiation are kept in the dark due to ignorance or a failure of communication rather than secrets. Come learn about the purpose and power of initiation and help yourself understand when, where and how it might be right for you.	Ile Ajebidan
Monday	9:00 AM	San Juan	Strong Roots and Wide Branches	The old ways are returning. Slumbering gods reawaken, gaining strength and gathering followers. But many of the traditions themselves are incomplete. In addition to religious regard for deities, historically most polytheistic cultures also included ancestor veneration, life cycle rituals, personal ethics, group mores, ways of living on and with the land and its spirits, religious-based artistic expression, and ritual technologies to best do these things. Let’s discuss how we can build, unearth, rediscover, shape and create whole, integrated Polytheist paths.	River Devora	Tradition not listed

Monday	9:00 AM	San Simeon	~Sekhmet~ Embracing Your Sex, Power and Inner Fire	Join the Sekhmet Ritual Meditation! Sekhmet's temples were dedicated to healing and raising sexual energy (kundalini). Monday	9:00 AM	Santa Clara	Origins of Astrology	We will be delving in to a discussion of the origins of astrology. I will be coming with material that covers Where did Astrology come from. How and why the ancients believed the stellar positions in the sky corresponded to a person's personality, their future, etc. We will be focusing on four different cultures, Babylonian, Grecian, Egyptian, and Vedic.	Volpe Argentata
Monday	11:00 AM	Carmel	More than a Medal: Xenia: Guest Friendship	The idea of guest friendship is so wide spread among the tribes of Humanity that we find it at the root of many of our basic myths. Had Helen been less than a queen, Paris would have found himself unwelcome throughout the Greek world: but as she was the Queen of Sparta, the only solution was war. Xenia was the Hellenic version of what we see today in Japan in the concept of an Intangible Cultural Property, or Living National Treasure. In Hellas, you got dinner for life, owing to the many possible things society felt worthy of the reward of your personal survival.	Thiasos Olympikos	Hellenic / Roman

Monday	11:00 AM	Cedar	Honey, ya stepped in somethin!	Practical Tips and Techniques for Claiming the Crown: There are so many problems in life that could be avoided if we do spiritual cleansing, regularly and with presence and skill. This time honored practice runs on a continuum of intensity from general to block busting to reversal of causes. As we move to become conscious creators of our individual lives; and conscious co-creators of our communal and shared planetary lives - we MUST be able to manage our clarity and control what claims our head. Spiritual cleansing and covering is about claiming your Crown of Success. Orion will share traditional folk wisdom about the mechanics of the soul, techniques/ recipes for cleansing (and covering), and deep insights from many years as a witch, conjure-man, seer and a fellow "project in process". (Adults only please.)	Orion Foxwood	Faerie / Feri

The Gods and Goddesses make no mistakes we are the definition of the Aloha Spirit.	Joanne Leilani Carpenter	Indigenous Non-European
Monday	11:00 AM	Oak	Magic of the Lunar Mansions	The Arabic Mansions of the Moon are often described as a Lunar Zodiac; a division of the passage of the Moon into 28 zones, about one per day. Each "Manzil" foretells the life of those born under it, but plays an important role in the creation of talismans in the tradition of Scholastic Image Magic. Picatrix, Cornelius Agrippa and many other grimoires detail their astrologically timed creation for countless purposes. These talismans are perhaps the simplest examples of this system, explaining their ubiquity. In this class we will discuss how to select and make basic Mansion talismans.	Clifford Hartleigh Low	Ceremonial

Monday	11:00 AM	San Martin	Numerology: An Introduction to the Numbers	Numbers are far more than representations of value, dates and times. Numbers are also vibrations, archetypes and wisdom passed down through symbolic language. This workshop offers a guided visualization exercise to help you build an understanding and relationship with each number of the numerology cycle. We will also explore the numbers which have been attached to you since birth (your birthdate) and what they can tell you about your personality & life's pursuits.	Damona Kat	Divination
Monday	11:00 AM	San Simeon	A Celtic Pagan Paradigm for Modern Communities	The Pagan Celts and their Druids did not just do things differently than the Greco-Roman cultures that came to dominate the western world. They saw the universe, both physical and spiritual, in a fundamentally different way and built their society accordingly. This workshop presents a model for building modern community based on the Celtic Tribal World View that is more just, compassionate, peaceful, gender inclusive, egalitarian, diversity-honoring, and sustainable than our current dominant culture. Come discuss the future healing of our culture that is elegantly possible and practical when based upon the natural wisdom of our Pagan tribal ancestors.	Michael R. Gorman	Celtic / Druid
Monday	11:00 AM	Santa Clara	Lilith: A Ritual of Empowerment	This ritual presentation will introduce you to the Goddess known as Lilith. Her story of creation and betrayal brings with it both blessing and curse to all who walk the Earth. Find your own strength and feel your soul empowered by the words of the Goddess.	Alix Wright	Goddess Spirituality

Monday	11:00 AM	Silicon Valley	Working your Shadow: a Workshop for Teens	Adolescence is often a "trial by fire" for many young adults; issues of peer pressure, self-worth and sexuality often come to the forefront of our lives during this time and add unnecessary pressure. So how do we handle all this bullst? What tools do we have in our "magical toolbox" that can help assist us in coming through our trial by fire? This workshop will explore what Shadow work is, and how our Shadows can be faced and utilized in order to help strengthen us. Recommended for teens 14 and up due to relevance of material; parents are welcome.	Jeyn Jaffe	General Pagan
Monday	1:30 PM	Fir	Closing Ritual	Join us as we give thanks for our wonderful community gathering where we can be ourselves, and network with like minded friends and allies. Until we meet again - love to all.	Glenn Turner & friends	General Pagan
