Daily Rune by Hilary Ayer

Day 1 Hagalaz, the ice storm

It has been a hard year. For many of you, it has been a hard journey to arrive here. Wind and rain and snow, and that has been the least of it. Here in California, fruit trees are starting to bloom. For all of us, it's time for a "breather," a rest from the storm, be it natural, political, or financial. Take the time to rest, to see your friends and teachers. Enjoy your survival and breathe freely here.

The runes are heathen symbols that are used in divination, talismantic, and chant magic. Hilary Ayer lives to talk about the runes. You may reach her through the Heathen Hospitality Hall.

Volunteer with PantheaCon!

Volunteers can earn special ribbons, earn back their membership fee, and it's a chance to give back to the community. To volunteer you must be registered for the conference and have your badge. Visit Con Ops in the Zinfandel Room on the 2nd floor to sign up!

No Private Vending

Please note that vending by persons not specifically authorized by PantheaCon, and vending in areas not authorized by PantheaCon, is not permitted. All vending is done through the Vendors' space in the ballrooms and other permitted public vending spots. There is no private selling of any kind allowed.

Readings & Booksignings with PantheaCon Presenters

Several of the PantheaCon presenters will be available for readings and book signings. There will be booksigning schedules and sign up sheets for readings at the Vendor Coordination table (just inside the main entrance to the room, immediately to your right as you enter).

Parking is $12/day for PantheaCon attendees. Day pass parking can be validated at registration and near the main elevators.
