PantheaCon Diversity & Consent Policy

PantheaCon welcomes people of all races, sexual orientations, genders, ages, physical abilities, and traditions. We do not tolerate racism, sexism, transphobia, elitism, ageism, ableism, or any activity based in bigotry and othering at PantheaCon. Maintaining a safe space for our attendees is very important to us. If an issue arises between attendees, we will discuss the issue with those involved, and seek to rectify the situation privately. Any person engaging in acts of bigotry, bullying, hostility, or harassment will be asked to leave, without a refund. See our Anti-Harassment policy.

PantheaCon is a Consent Culture event. We expect attendees and participants to seek proactive, positive, and confirmed responses of “Yes” before touching anyone or their property, taking anyone’s picture, consuming any libation, engaging in sexual activity, or otherwise entering another person’s physical or energetic space.

We welcome feedback to help us continue to grow a culture where all participants feel safe, heard, and valued. Let us respect each other and look after one another.

(We give thanks to Sharon Knight and Hexenfest). Also look online at the PantheaCon Policies section for more details. (7.1.19 Diversity & Consent statement)
