Daily Rune by Hilary Ayer

Day 2 Othala, the heritage

How our hearts cling to what we know and what we have learned from the mighty, whether spirits, ancestors, god/desses or urges. In heathenry, this is one of Odin the initiator's runes. There is a certain waking that comes when your own connection to your heritage is seen suddenly. One poet I know says that Zen satori happen all the time – meditation only teaches you to notice and learn from them. Notice more. Appreciate more. Here you have come to the high hill from which you can see the world and feel (in the Dionysian or Apollonian senses) as the elements of your abilities swirl and configure. Love yourselves. Love those around you. Ingest and be inspired.

Hilary Ayer has recovered from her medical emergency, and is back at PantheaCon.

Con Area for Teens!

There is a teen room this year in the Chardonnay room on the 2nd floor! You must be at least 13 years old to be in the room.

Movie Night on Saturday at 9!

PantheaCon attendees may NOT use the back hallways or service elevators of the hotel for any reason whatsoever.

There is no burning of incense, candles, sage, or ANY other flammable items in any area of the hotel, including balconies and walkways. This includes all smoking, even electronic cigarettes & medical use.

Want to post a flyer?

You MUST get approval from the Info desk, post only in authorized locations (no marble or glass), and use only the blue tape provided.

Accessibility

There is wheelchair/scooter seating space available in every PantheaCon event. Seats near it are reserved for non-disabled companions.

PantheaCon has a no photography or video recordings policy. If you have questions about it, please inquire at the Info Desk.

The 9th floor and 10th floor stairwell doors must stay locked. ANY method of keeping them open or unlocked (such as taping over the locks) WILL be removed by both Hotel personnel and Convention personnel.

Want your events in the newsletter?

Email newsletter@pantheacon.com or bring them to the info desk by 9 PM.
