Daily Rune by Hilary Ayer

Sunday Thurisaz, the Thorn

Here is the soreness. It can be used externally to protect. It can be used as a weapon. It is the origin of the sewing needle (as we use an awl in leather work today, before the 'eye' of the needle was invented we would make an individual hole and poke the sinew or fiber through in, then poke another hole, etc.) Let us protect both ourselves and one another. Let us make the protections that clear space for our rituals, and let us protect our ways of working, our ways of loving, our ways of sweet chaos. Let us learn our own sweet energy within safe ground. Let us here and now learn the safe defense measures that will keep our ground safe.

Be respectful: Clean up your own messes

Accessibility

There is wheelchair/scooter seating space available in every PantheaCon event. The seats immediately adjacent to those open spaces should be held for any able-bodied companion of those who need assistive devices.

Animals and PantheaCon

While the DoubleTree Hotel is a pet-friendly venue, PantheaCon allows only trained service animals to be present in Con events. Companion animals and comfort animals are not allowed. This includes but is not limited to, mammals, reptiles, amphibians, and birds.

Respect Privacy!

PantheaCon has a
NO PHOTOGRAPHY and
NO VIDEO RECORDINGS
policy.

Badge Ribbon Etiquette

Ask nicely, don't demand, and use your magic words ("please" and "thank you"). Don't badger people for a ribbon, or interrupt them to ask for one. Politely accept when you get the inevitable "No." Not every ribbon is meant to be shared widely; you can't collect them all.

Monday Luggage Check!

Luggage Check on Monday will be from 8:30AM to 5:00PM in the San Jose/Santa Clara room to allow people to more easily attend the whole last day. Use of this service is at your own risk, so carry your valuables.

PantheaCon attendees may NOT use the back hallways or service elevators of the hotel for any reason whatsoever.
